

Evaluating Sources

Questions to ask when evaluating sources:

- What is the purpose of the material, from the perspective of the source itself?
- Who is the intended audience for the information?
- How much does the source work to appeal to the audience's emotions?
- How much does the source work to appeal to logic?
- Is the source credible? How do we know?
 - Evaluate ADAM:
 - Age
 - Depth
 - Author
 - Money
 - Dig through source and do further research if necessary to uncover this information.