

WAIVER UNDER THE CARES ACT for FALL 2021 and SPRING 2022

Federal Financial Aid

Who qualifies for the waiver?

- Students who have done a total withdrawal from the institution.
- Students must complete the COVID 19 Waiver Form and be able to attest that the reason for their withdraw was due to COVID-19. Allowable reasons are outlined on the form. Any supporting documentation you have enhances our ability to provide you with this waiver.

What does it get me?

- Waives the Return to Title IV requirement.
- Direct Loan funds received for the period will be cancelled.
- The period will not count toward the student's Subsidized Loan usage for purposes of the 150% Direct Subsidized Loan limit.
- Pell Grant funds received for the period will be excluded from the student's Lifetime Eligibility.
- Institution may grant an academic waiver based on your application and documentation if planning to return. Students have the option to apply for a Loss Federal and State Aid Waiver Application as well. This waiver carries none of the above benefits; strictly an academic waiver.

STATE FINANCIAL AID

Who qualifies for the waiver?

- Students who are unable to complete courses for the term or earn fewer credits or a lower grade than required by award programs due to Covid 19.
