The Cayuga County Community College Foundation, Inc.

Dear Friends of the CCC Foundation,

The past few years have been full of activity at the Cayuga Community College Foundation. We have undertaken some of the largest and most ambitious projects in our history of supporting the College, our alumni and especially our students. I am pleased to tell you our story in this year's Annual Report.

Although I graduated from the College several years ago, Cayuga still impacts my life on a daily basis. The lessons I learned from my faculty and mentors continues to guide my life, both at work and at home. In addition, I interact with ACC/CCC grads on a daily basis throughout the community. The professionalism of my fellow alumni—be they teachers, attorneys, police officers, business owners, nurses or those from other walks of life—convinces me daily of the quality of a Cayuga education. We should be very proud of the thousands of alumni who touch our lives every day.

Your support of the Cayuga Community College Foundation has helped make these alumni who they are today. Your gifts are also transforming the lives of thousands of CCC students—future alumni who will make Cayuga and Oswego Counties (and other places) better for all of us.

As we help to move the College forward, the CCC Foundation will continue to rely upon the engagement of you, our friends and donors. On behalf of the Foundation's Board of Directors, I personally offer you my sincere gratitude for your tremendous support of the Cayuga Community College Foundation and invite you to journey with us as we plan for the future.

Support to the College

The Foundation provides support to the College in two forms: 1) scholarships, awards and grants to students and 2) support for academic and other College and community programs. The Foundation had another good year receiving gifts and grants from many generous individuals, foundations and organizations.

Support to Students

In the past year, the Foundation received funds to create two endowed scholarships:

The Peter B. Buxbaum Memorial Scholarship was created by Barbara Buxbaum in memory of her son. This will be awarded to a returning sophomore with preference given to a graduate of Auburn High School. She/he must declare an interest in pursuing a liberal arts program cumulating in a B.A. degree, with a major in the humanities or social science; demonstrate academic excellence, particularly in the subject of English; demonstrate an interest in music, the arts and/or student government while attending CCC; must also demonstrate an ability in communications as evidenced by work on the College's student newspaper, contributions to a literary magazine, reporting for a local newspaper and/or other communications activities.

The Thommie Walsh Memorial Scholarship was established through the efforts of Thommie's sister, Barbara. The scholarship will be awarded to a full-time, returning sophomore attending the Auburn Campus who is pursuing a concentration in Theatre or Music at CCC. First preference will be given to a graduate of Auburn High School.

During 2012-2013, the Foundation provided $393,287 to the College and to the community through awards, scholarships, campus improvements and other awards including the following:

- $242,767 for 270 Scholarships and 79 Commencement Awards to diminish some of the unmet need of $21,242,608 for 2012-2013.
- $18,358 in Faculty Grants for the Emerson Endowed Chair, four Special Project Grants and one Summer Fellowship.
- $84,632 for Program Grants.

Support to the College

Program Support

During 2012-13 the CCC Foundation provided significant program funding. Foundation grants give CCC faculty the new tools they need to provide updated, cutting-edge educational programming for our students. Here is a sampling of Foundation-funded initiatives in the past year.

The Instructional Equipment Fund provided support for:

- Seven I-pad minis and software for our “Sim Man” (simulation mannequins for use by nursing students)
- Over $10,000 in pumps, software and other items for CCC’s Nursing Labs
- An HXR-MC2000U SONY camera for our Telecommunications program in the CCC’s School of Media and the Arts (SOMA)
- A Logic Analyzer device for CCC’s Mechanical/Electrical Technology programs
- More than $6,600 in grants to update our kiln for pottery and art production
- A high-end Yamaha Digital Piano for our music students

The CCC Foundation provided a special grant to purchase laptop computers for military veterans attending the College. Cayuga’s Veteran Laptop Loan Program (VLLP) makes laptops available to student veterans for use on and off campus to assist them with their educational success.

Thanks to a series of grants from the Green Family Foundation, the CCC Foundation has provided $77,000 for Cayuga’s Telecommunications programs. Their 2012 grant helped purchase new flooring, lighting and acoustical materials for our television studio.

Using a grant from the John Ben Snow Foundation, the CCC Foundation purchased furnishings, a stage, a lectern and other items for use in the “Fashion Bug” special events area at the Fulton Campus.

The mosaic mural project, funded by the CCC Foundation’s Daniel C. Labeille Artist-in-Residence Endowment, added a new outdoor mural at our Auburn Campus. CCC students designed this piece and created it under the direction of Jennifer Gandee, a long-time adjunct instructor at the College, talented ceramics artist, and director of Gandee Gallery in Fabius, New York. (See accompanying article)

The Library Collection Fund of the CCC Foundation purchased fifteen titles to bolster our science, history and music collections. These included E-Healthcare Systems and Wireless Communications: Current and Future Challenges to support students in our Nursing program.

The CCC Foundation secured a highly competitive grant through the Coleman Foundation in Chicago, the leading foundation in support of community college entrepreneurship education. Our E-ship initiatives overseen by Professor Thomas Paczkowski, the Fred L. Emerson Endowed Chair for Enterprise and Innovation, used the Coleman grant for Cayuga’s Business Idea Competition. (See accompanying article)

Special Projects and Development Grants provide faculty and staff members the opportunity to attend conferences, explore possible new programs and develop new intersession courses. In the summer of 2013, Business Instructor Amy Valente researched the potential for developing a new certificate program in the area of Tourism and Hospitality. Her proposal noted that “tourism is a $1 billion industry in Central New York, and current global economic conditions...create opportunities for our region to draw additional international visitors... In addition, the region has an abundance of arts and cultural opportunities...” As a result of Ms. Valente’s work, a certificate program was presented to the Board of Trustees at its January 2014 meeting.

CCC Students Create "Roots in the Finger Lakes" Mosaic Mural

Artists have captured the beauty of the Finger Lakes in every type of media for centuries. Now the Finger Lakes have been portrayed in a mosaic mural entitled "Roots in the Finger Lakes" at Cayuga Community College. The piece was designed by Cayuga students with artist-in-residence Jennifer Gandee and faculty member Melissa Johnson. This project was funded by the CCC Foundation through its Daniel C. Labeille Artist-in-Residence Endowment.

Gandee and Johnson began with a series of meetings with students, faculty and staff. "We envisioned this as a complete learning process from the start," Gandee said. "First, I introduced students to the history and forms of mosaics going back to ancient times." Johnson continued, "We then asked students to sketch out their ideas, discussing their drafts as a group. Through this process we combined several of the themes they presented: a tree trunk and roots, sedimentary layers with fossils, and the Finger Lakes. Our collaborative drawing of the image was further developed by Jen."

The chosen design incorporates multiple elements into one unified piece.

"The lakes became the roots of a large tree, growing in multi-colored layers of soil, interspersed with fossil and organic imagery," said Johnson. An outdoor wall near the College's School of Media and the Arts (SOMA) was selected as the site for the mural, because SOMA brings together CCC's programs in Media Production, Audio/Radio Production, Studio Art, Music, Theatre, Writing and Literature.

The final piece included more than 1,000 individually-fired tiles, plus other materials donated by local businesses. Jesse Kline, who was involved in the downtown mosaics in Auburn, assisted with the final stages of the installation in April 2013. "Students, employees, CCC alumni and other community members came together helping to install the tiles," said Gandee. In the future the College plans to add an outdoor seating area where students and the College community can read, study, play music and appreciate this work of art.

Falcone Lecture Series Brings Yvonne Conte to CCC

Just in time for the holidays, motivational speaker Yvonne Conte arrived at CCC in November 2012 to share her unique perspective on how to "De-Stress the Mess." Ms. Conte spoke at a new venue on our Auburn Campus, the Cayuga Café. Her presentation was sponsored by the CCC Foundation's Noreen and Michael J. Falcone Lecture Fund, which has brought outstanding speakers to the College and surrounding communities since 1997.

Ms. Conte, who lives in Westvale, New York, sprinkled humor and stories from her Italian-American upbringing throughout the evening. She read brief excerpts from her most recent book, Cry, Laugh, Cook! A Collection of Essays, Conversations, and Conte Family Recipes. She reached out to a crowd of over 100 guests in CCC's Café, encouraging them to "remember the emotional and physical benefits of laughter. Our thoughts and actions are closely linked in our lives; the better you think, the better you will become."

Yvonne Conte has written 87 feature articles and published six books. She also presents keynote addresses each year for such clients as Xerox Corporation, Time Warner, GE Global, AT&T, and Merck and Medeva Pharmaceutical. Featured on national and regional television programs, Conte also offers workshops through Humor Advantage Training Inc. Her uplifting message has reached more than 50,000 people across the United States and around the world. For more information about Conte, visit her at www.yvonneconte.com.

Entrepreneurship Update: The Coleman Foundation supports Business Idea Competition

Cayuga Community College embarked on an Entrepreneurial Initiative in 2006 to enhance the quality of life and increase entrepreneurship in Central New York. Thanks to grants totaling more than $2 million, the CCC Foundation has helped the College:

- create the nation's first Endowed Chair at a community college in Entrepreneurship, the Fred L. Emerson Foundation, Inc. Chair in Enterprise and Innovation;
- underwrite award-winning student run enterprises (Cayuga Records and C3 Video);
- generate thousands of dollars for charity through social e-ship (the Prom Dress Project);
- start a Wine Studies Program capitalizing on the Finger Lakes' wine industry; and
- co-found the SUNY ENGINE (Educational Network to Grow Innovation and Entrepreneurship).

Cayuga has infused entrepreneurship across academic disciplines, touching more than 20% of our students. As Professor Thomas Paczkowski, CCC's Emerson Endowed Chair noted, "While we have had success in encouraging students to think and work entrepreneurially, we need to take the next step. We now wish to encourage our entrepreneurs to test and advance their ideas under the guidance of experienced mentors."

CCC Foundation Contributions 2004-2013 as per audit

2012-13 Update

In 2012-13, CCC took its entrepreneurship program to this next level, involving mentors to guide our students. CCC piloted the 2013 Business Idea Competition, open to students from all of SUNY's community colleges. Using practicing entrepreneurs to assist these students, we recruited an outstanding group of mentors. They included John Liddy, Entrepreneur in Residence at Syracuse University; Robert Pine, business consultant and founder of a telecommunications company; Richard Chalupnicki, owner of a financial services company; Laura Coburn, educator and founder of Coburn Design; and others. "These entrepreneurs have all started and managed successful businesses," said Paczkowski. "They were excited to contribute to the next step of our Entrepreneurial Initiative." Cayuga faculty involved in the competition included Amy Valente, Sheila Myers and William Prosser. Prizes were awarded in the amounts of $1,250, $750, $500 and $250.

"The Business Idea Competition provided mentoring opportunities to students from practicing entrepreneurs," Paczkowski continued. "Students met with their mentors prior to submission of their applications and received expert advice following the competition." Each entry included a concept summary, the intended target market, a value proposition, market analysis and a description of the product/service offering.

Since 2006, the CCC Foundation has secured major support for the Entrepreneurial Initiative from the Fred L. Emerson Foundation and the Stardust Foundation of Central NY (Auburn); the First Niagara Foundation (Lockport, NY); the Coleman Foundation (Chicago, IL); the Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation (Kansas City, MO); and the Stardust Foundation (Scottsdale, AZ).

CCC Foundation Recognized as “Top 100” in America

Since its inception in 1982, the Cayuga Community College Foundation has consistently earned praise as one of the best in SUNY. Now, the CCC Foundation has taken its place among the best foundations in America, ranking #95 among the nation’s community colleges.

Dr. William R. Crowe, Director of the University of Georgia’s Center for Continuing Education, has completed extensive research on public two-year colleges and their supporting foundations. His work was based on the annual tax returns (IRS 990 filings) of each foundation, ranking them in an order based on total assets and funds raised. The data included filings from 2009-2012, making this the most comprehensive research project ever conducted in the arena of two-year college advancement.

“Dr. Crowe’s research continues the national recognition given to the CCC Foundation in recent years,” said Executive Director Jeff Hoffman. “Our Foundation has earned accolades from the National Association for Community College Entrepreneurship for its support of Cayuga’s ‘E-ship Across the Curriculum’ model. In addition, our good friends Jack and Jerry Bisgrove were honored in Washington, D.C. by the Council for Resource Development (CRD) for their support of CCC. Their award was one of only ten given nationwide to community colleges.”

“This recognition of the Cayuga Community College Foundation is a testament to our donors,” said Board President Lloyd Hoskins. “The outstanding support we receive, both for annual giving and for capital campaigns, has helped us earn this recognition. We take our responsibility very seriously to raise significant support for the College and to be diligent in our management of all funds entrusted to the care of the CCC Foundation.”

ACC/CCC Alumni Association

With each passing year, the ACC/CCC Alumni Association continues to carry forth its mission to provide services to our graduates, our students and our community. Its reputation of being one of the strongest associations of its size in the SUNY system has been earned and well deserved.

Our Alumni Association’s achievements reflect the strong commitments of ACC/CCC’s graduates and friends. By staying involved and connected, they enjoy fellowship with other alums while building a foundation of success for students—our future alumni. We encourage you to think about your days at ACC/CCC from time to time, reflecting back on how your education positively affected your life.

The 2012-13 issues of The Spartan alumni newsletter were special anniversary editions celebrating the 60th anniversary of the founding of the College. ACC welcomed its first incoming freshmen on September 1, 1953; many thousands have passed through our doors since then. We’ve been here for 60 years and we’re looking forward to the next 60 years of educating students and enriching lives!

Our Faculty: Leaving a Legacy at Cayuga Community College

Author Eugene P. Burtin wrote, "Teaching is leaving a vestige of one's self in the development of another. And surely the student is a bank in which you can deposit your most precious treasures." For sixty years the faculty and staff of Auburn/Cayuga Community College have been depositing a bit of themselves in every student who has walked through our doors. As each student leaves the College, he or she takes a part of every ACC/CCC teacher into our communities. This is the legacy of an excellent educational institution.

Many of Cayuga's faculty, staff and retirees of the College have taken this concept a step further. They have created an additional legacy at CCC through their wills and estates. The most recent person to do this is Linda Alfieri, Director of Cayuga's Nursing Program. "I have always supported the CCC Foundation with my annual giving," said Linda. "In 2011, I collaborated with my colleague and Cayuga alumna Dr. Cathleen McColgin to create the annual Alfieri-McColgin Nursing Excellence Scholarship." This is awarded to a student entering his/her second year in CCC's Nursing Program who has demonstrated a spirit of inquiry and passion for the pursuit of excellence in the nursing profession.

But this still wasn't enough.

"My husband and I realized that through our will, we could create a permanent legacy in support of Cayuga's nursing students," Linda said. "Working with the CCC Foundation and our attorney, we have set aside a portion of our estate to endow a scholarship for nursing students. We are delighted that our gift will support students, not just for one year at a time but forever."

Gifts like this represent giving at the highest level. They reflect our personal values as well as our strong belief in the future of the College.

Legacy Circle

For over thirty years, the faithful support of alumni and friends has been a key to the success of the Cayuga Community College Foundation. In that spirit of giving, we have created the Legacy Circle to honor individuals who have included the CCC Foundation in their estate plans. The Legacy Circle represents giving at the highest level. Commitments such as these assist in bringing outstanding educators and speakers to the College; providing scholarships for outstanding students; and enhancing the College's programs, services and facilities.

If you have named the Cayuga Community College Foundation in your estate plans or would like to know how to do so, contact Jeffrey L. Hoffman, the executive director of the Foundation at (315) 294-8627 or foundation@cayuga-cc.edu.
